

Hanuman

Facing the main Sanctum Sanctorum, is a small sanctorum. The idol in that temple is that of Hanuman. Hanuman is the Avatar of Mukhya Prana also known as Vayu Deva. The purpose of his incarnation is to provide service to Sri Ram in His task of destroying the destructive forces headed by Ravana. Ravana had the boon from Brahma, that no Demon or Deity can kill him. He ignored the humans and apes. That was the reason Bhagavan Vishnu had to take human form as Sri Ram and Vayu Deva as Hanuman. In spite of his appearance, Hanuman is worshipped as 'Ocean of Knowledge' and is considered the Greatest devotee of Lord Sri Ram. He is in the form of 'Prana' in all the beings without whose presence no being can function!
